

Who is a Role Model ?

* “ If you need someone who looks exactly like you , then you will never do anything new ”.

- A role model is a person whose behaviour, achievements, or qualities are admired and emulated by others, particularly by younger or less experienced individuals.
- Role models often serve as a source of inspiration and guidance, demonstrating how to succeed, lead, or overcome challenges in various areas of life, such as personal growth, career , or social responsibilities.

The Quest for a Relatable Role Model

- How many people do you share your personal life with to a significant extent?
- How many sources of inspiration do you have for your career development?
- What is more important ?
 - A. Personal Life
 - B. Career
- In a world full of celebrities, influencers, and public figures, whom can we truly look up to?
 - * We should select a role model with whom we share a deep personal connection.
 - * Additionally, we can look for various sources of inspiration to aid in our career growth.
